

Sistema WISE de flujo de datos de Saima Sistemas

The image displays two views of a 2U server chassis. The left view shows the front of the server, featuring a silver faceplate with two drive bays and a central label area. The right view shows the rear of the server, revealing the internal components, including the motherboard, memory modules, and various connectors and cooling fans.

